CANCELLATION NOTICE

DoD Instruction 7935.1, "DoD Automated Information Systems," September 13, 1977, has served the purpose for which it was intended and is no longer required.

This Instruction established the use of DoD-STD-7935A as guidance for documenting automated information systems (AIS) projects. This standard was replaced in January 1995 by MIL-STD-498 which consolidated the documentation requirements for both AIS and weapon systems.

The above cancellation is effective immediately.
